Why Cucumber Sandwiches? And can you find the blue wrens?

“The sandwiches are something that Alva Courtis started I think. She always submitted a 9x5 featuring blue wrens. Since she passed we have always had at least one blue wren 9x5, i think its her saying hi!” Shannan Gillespie

PAUL RICCIARDO

Paul Ricciardo, a skilled anaesthetist with a passion for stitching, presents his artwork "Suns of Fun" at the 9x5 Exhibition.

Beyond his medical expertise, Dr. Ricciardo's deep connection to Esperance shines through his artwork. As the former Chairperson of the Cannery Arts Centre Committee and a life member, his commitment to the town's artistic community is profound. His artwork not only showcases his talent but also celebrates the vibrant spirit of Esperance that he has tirelessly supported through his involvement in the arts.

RECOGNITION OF KAREN MCCLURKIN

Karen McClurkin, a former manager of the Cannery Arts Centre, made significant contributions to the arts community by generously donating two pieces to this exhibition. Her passing earlier this year marked a loss felt deeply within our artistic community, and we honour her memory and dedication to the arts.

KEN DONE

Born 29 June, 1940, in Sydney, Ken left school at 14 to enter the National Art School in East Sydney. After 5 years study, he commenced a highly successful career as an art director and designer in New York, London and Sydney.

At the age of 40, after painting for many years, he gave up his advertising career to become a painter full-time. Since then, he has held over 100 one-man shows, including major exhibitions in Australia, Europe, Japan and the USA. His works have been shown in the Archibald, Sulman, Wynne, Blake, and Dobell Prizes.

In 1991, a major touring exhibition in Japan attracted over 200,000 visitors. The artist's first European exhibition was held in Paris in 1996, to great acclaim, and in 2000 the art of Ken Done was successfully premiered in both Los Angeles and London.

Is it not time we placed Done into the context of Streeton and Roberts, Olsen and Nolan
Glenn Barkley, 2012

Major projects in a very diverse career include the painting of a BMW Artcar, and the total decorative scheme for the Garden Restaurant at the Powerhouse Museum, in Sydney. In 1994, a major retrospective of Ken Done's work "Ken Done: the art of design" was mounted by the Powerhouse Museum. In 2002 the Museum acquired his commercial art and design archive of more than 300 items.

In 1988, Hanako, a Tokyo fashion and lifestyle magazine, was launched, and featured a Ken Done painting on the cover every week for over 15 years. In 1999, Done was asked to create a series of works for the Opening and Closing Ceremonies programs of the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games.

Ken's paintings became the creative source of a unique, and highly successful Australian business which continues to promote Australian art and design to a world-wide audience.

In 1993, Ken, together with his wife Judy, won the Fashion Industries of Australia's Grand Award for Fashion.

Although he has worked extensively for many charitable organisations, the welfare of underprivileged children has always been a special concern of Ken's. Father of the Year in 1989, Ken Done has been a Goodwill Ambassador for UNICEF since 1988.

Ken received the Order of Australia (A.M.), for services to Art, Design and Tourism in 1992. In many parts of the world, Ken Done has come to symbolise Australia and Australians: creative, optimistic and bold
